Welcome to 2022. Homestead!

I've never much believed in New Year's resolutions, which I realize isn't a popular opinion. January 1st comes around, and a lot of people start to make promises to themselves.

They're going to eat better. They're going to exercise more. They're going to call their best friend every Friday night to catch up, and these are all lovely goals. I don't frown upon them at all, but I think they bring on a certain level of pressure. I don't like starting the year with promises that may be broken by the middle of the month. It feels like a set up for a shaky foundation, so I use the new year to work with hope.

Growing up, I loved reading and writing poetry. It was a lifeline for me. It was something that pushed and pulled me through my turbulent teenage years. I had a countless number of notebooks. I loved sitting outdoors or near a window, watching nature and spilling out my thoughts and feelings.

In a lot of ways, writing to you in this newsletter has started to bring me back to my writer's heart. I'm so grateful for that. It's not quite the same, of course. I'm no longer sixteen and lamenting about my most recent crush. It was always the beginning and end of the world with crushes, wasn't it? Life was much simpler then, but writing to you has helped me to rediscover a vital part of myself. So many of you have thanked me for my writings, but how can I thank you properly for allowing me to write and share, for us to think on things together? Sometimes, words aren't enough.

"HOPE SMILES FROM THE THRESHOLD OF THE YEAR TO COME, WHISPERING, 'IT WILL BE HAPPIER.'"

— Alfred Lord Tennyson

In the event that they are, I wanted to start the new year with a poem by Emily Dickinson that I have framed in my home. It has been something that I've carried with me for almost twenty-five years. The first time I read it, it struck a chord in me. I think hope brings with it an energy that we all need, particularly at the start of a new year.

Homestead, I hope the new year has started peacefully for you. As the months go by, I hope to see and chat with more of you. I hope you're able to spend time with the people that you love, and no matter what, that you always settle with hope at the end of a long day.

"HOPE" IS THE THING WITH FEATHERS - THAT PERCHES IN THE SOUL -
AND SINGS THE TUNE WITHOUT THE WORDS - AND NEVER STOPS - AT ALL -

AND SWEETEST - IN THE GALE - IS HEARD -
AND SORE MUST BE THE STORM -
THAT COULD ABASH THE LITTLE BIRD
THAT KEPT SO MANY WARM -

I'VE HEARD IT IN THE CHILLEST LAND -
AND ON THE STRANGEST SEA -
YET - NEVER - IN EXTREMITY,
IT ASKED A CRUMB - OF ME.

Until next time,

Laura Langone

ANNOUNCEMENT

Homestead Run will be changing to ROBO cans. They will be delivered the last week of January between the 24th and the 28th. It will be a multiple day roll-out, weather-permitting.

Your Sanitation Collect Day is changing to the first week of February 2022. It will be moving to every FRIDAY effective February 1st, 2022. It will be collected every Friday from then on. Your first new sanitation collection day will be Friday, February 4th, 2022.

Robo recycling will begin in February as well. The schedule will be changing to every other Monday. We are awaiting the date of the official start.

All items must be placed in your new robo cans for collections starting Friday, February 4th. Older cans will not be used. You are not permitted to leave bags on the curb. Everything must go inside of your robo cans.

On Friday, March 4th, we will be coming through the neighborhood to collect old and unwanted sanitation or recycling cans. Leave them empty on the curb to be recycled.

You may call 732-255-1000 for extra sanitation pick ups for any items that do not fit into your robo can, as always. Those extra pick-ups will occur the Monday following your garbage pick-up.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Toms River Public Works will be distributing flyers about this change in the neighborhood on Tuesday, January 18th, 2022. We have been granted permission from the Homestead Run Business Office.
